1 Kyle, 12, United Kingdom

In the United Kingdom, we've got a lot of different families – some are big and some are small. My family is very big now. My mum's got a new husband and he's great. He's very clever and he helps me with my homework. He's got a son, too, so now I've got a brother. We play football together every Saturday. We argue, but after five minutes, it's all OK! He's my brother and we're good friends.

2 Lang, 11, China

A lot of families here in China have got only one child. My friends and I haven't got brothers or sisters but we aren't sad. Brothers and sisters can be bossy! We've got a good life and we've got very good friends. I live with my mum and dad, and my granny and grandad. It's fun because my grandparents play games with me. They are also very helpful. I love my small family.

3 James, 12, United States

I live in the United States. Our house is big. We've got a very big kitchen and there are four bathrooms in the house. My friends have got small families but I've got a mum and dad, three sisters and three brothers. Big families are great! In my family, the big children help the small children. My sister, Jill, is 17 and she helps me with my homework and music practice. She's bossy but she's nice, too.

1. Who does Kyle play football with? _____

2. Who does Lang live with? _____

3. Who lives in a big house? _____

4. What is James's sister Jill like? _____

5. What is Kyle's mother's husband like? _____
